Ed is passing out our Fun Day posters to other departments and looking for volunteers.

The electrical service in the kitchen has been updated. Jim Lehmann donated the wire and devices.

Jim Nelson requested we not use Fifield Grocery for the meat raffle due to animosity in the past. The owner has not been a friend to Pike Lake Fire Department. A motion was made to use TJ's Butcher Block because they have donated to Fun Day in the past. A motion was made to purchase the meat raffle coupons from TJ's Butcher Block by Mike Sloane/2nd by Jim Brandt. Motion passed.

The Fifield picnic is July 10 and 11th. Ann Sloane is looking for volunteers to pass out necklaces, glo sticks and beads at the event and sell raffle tickets. Fifield requested additional donations other than the $4000 Pike Lake Fire donated for the fireworks. Thanks to Karen Knox for a donation of items for the event.

Jim Nelson requested funds, not to exceed $150, for four extension cords for the kitchen. A motion was made by Rick Sironi/2nd by Jim Brandt. Motion carried.

A motion was made by Nancy Grandy/2nd by Terry Mantor for $150 for advertising.

If you have Silent Auction items contact Terry Mantor (715-904-0723) and he will store them.

There will be no soft serve this year.

A motion was made to charge $3/ear or $5.00/2 ears for corn by Jim Brandt/2nd Greg Pawell. Motion carried.

Sandy Guerard (920-410-2983) needs volunteers for the Kids' Games. She is taking cash donations and toy donations. She will be at the dump on Saturday MORNING, July 4th. You can drop off donations then or take them to Jack's house.

A motion was made to charge $6.00 for the meatball subs by Greg Pawell/2nd Jim Nelson. Motion carried.

New Business

Otto, Peggy and Ed have been looking at updating the by-laws. They will continue to meet on this project after Fun Day.

In four years Fun Day will be 50 years old. We will be thinking ahead to work on that.

Greg and Bridget Pawell are willing to donate a medium-sized safe for the fire department.
